The route has had to be change from previously published because one of the French ports couldn't accommodate our fleet. The dates remain unchanged 19th to 28th June. Group discounted berthing will be available, but we are still waiting for one of the French ports to confirm their prices. Once received, a new button will be added to the web site for you to take advantage of the discounts available. This is a fantastic value for money event with the entry fee being held at £100 this year.

Don't wait, get your entry in now.
